

House and Senate Ag Committee members' personal finances

The chart below lists all members of the House and Senate Agriculture Committee in descending order, with the wealthiest, Rep. Chris Collins, R-N.Y., at the top and the poorest, Rep. Stephen Lee Fincher, R-Tenn., at the bottom.

Because members are required to report wealth ranges rather than exact values, Agri-Pulse used the upper and lower limits provided by the Center for Responsive Politics to calculate the average net worth of each lawmaker.
